MILWAUKEE:
Thursday Morning, April 10.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

CONNECTICUT has chosen a decided majority to both branches of her Legislature adverse to Pierce and Nebraska and the Slavery Propagandists.

Gov. SEWARD delivered yesterday in the U. S. Senate a noble speech on the Kansas question and in vindication of the efforts of the North to consecrate that fair central land to Freedom.

Both Houses of Congress continue to be occupied with this all-engressing subject.

The Committee to investigate the frauds in the Kansas election passed thro' Chicago Tuesday, on their way West.

The daring robber of Ball, Black & Co.'s jewelry store, New York, was luckily caught yesterday, when just starting for England with his $50,000 booty.

The K. N. Conclave was in secret session, in our city, yesterday; but caused no visible disturbance in the ordinary run of business.

Seamen will find sailing directions for entering Chicago Harbor under the Marine head in to-days Sentinel.

The New York market of yesterday shows a better feeling and improved demand, as well as larger transactions.

See our Advertising and Local columns for a great variety of interesting items, and business notices.

Milwaukee and Chicago Railroads and Prospects.

If Milwaukee is not reaping the benefit from the many Wisconsin roads, which her most sanguine merchants and property holders have expected, natural causes, not any dereliction on their part, or want of local pride among the people of the State, are also chargeable with this result; and, really, we cannot see that anybody is to blame or that anybody has been overreached.

We have no disposition to exult over the fact that trade is seeking its natural and inevitable channels; these were formed in the configuration of the country, with which the people of Chicago had little to do, and for which they are entitled to little credit. It is true that they have used the advantage of position, as Milwaukee has also done, and perhaps with more zeal and industry, more public spirit and generosity than have been displayed here. But starting in the race as the two towns did—one favorably and the other unfavorably situated to become the great commercial centre of the North-west—it is not wonderful that with the decision before them, the people of Wisconsin should adopt the policy which we now see them pursuing.

While claiming for Chicago that commercial pre-eminence to which she is entitled, and which the Madison Journal will not deny her, we do not undertake to disparage Milwaukee, either as a place of business or as a worthy object of State pride. That she will continue to increase and increase rapidly we have no disposition to deny—That her merchants and property-holders will grow rich, we devoutly wish. That she may realize the wishes of those who have indulged in the wildest anticipations, we will charitably hope. But that her commercial position will enable her to command the whole trade of Wisconsin, no no matter what efforts may be made, or how thoroughly State pride may be aroused, we should be very foolish to admit. State pride and individual efforts do not now-a-days alone build up cities. Something else is required, and if Chicago has that something and Milwaukee has it not, we see no occasion for the people of Wisconsin, or the journals that they read, to quarrel with a destiny which nothing short of a reversal of the position of the two places can avert.

We find the above in the Chicago Tribune, in reply to an article somewhat incomprehensible in its object and spirit, in allusion to the contract made by the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R Co., with the "Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. Co.," as to running of trains by the latter over the former road between Janesville and Madison. Concerning that contract, we have only to say that we presume that it was made after full consideration, and with a certainty of receiving ample benefits therefrom.

Some passages in the Tribune's article seem to demand such brief attention as we can now give them.

Milwaukee is reaping, to the full extent of her anticipations, the benefit from the "many Wisconsin roads" to which the Tribune refers; said many roads, leading to the interior, being one of ten miles, one of 50, and one of 60, with another connection of 30 or 40 miles from the last of the three. None of these cross the state, but all are being pushed westward and north-westward, and each mile added to their length adds to the business and wealth of this city. These roads have been built, and are owned by our own people or Wisconsin, since we have been off from the lines of East and West travel, and have had no aid from the owners of those lines. We are getting onwards now rapidly towards the Mississippi—we are by the Lake Shore R. R. in connexion with the Eastern lines, and shall have in another year an airline route eastward from this city—and the several roads diverging westwardly reach into as fertile a country as the sun ever shone upon.

Milwaukee has no reason to feel any alarm at Chicago competition. There is room enough for both of us to live and grow rich, and, please the croakers or not, we mean and expect to do it. Produce on the railroad lines in Wisconsin, and near them, will push for the nearest port. That port is not Chicago, and farmers, or buyers, or middlemen, will never take produce to Chicago to be shipped, for the privilege of paying double price for transportation. When, too, we take into account the well-known fact that our market is better for the farmer, on the average, by almost as much as the freight money for 50 miles, and frequently much more, we do not think there is any great reason to be alarmed at Chicago competition for produce.

As to merchandize freight, brought from the East by lake to go westward, we think that merchants in the interior sufficiently know their own interests to make their contracts for carriage by the route which will be likely to bring them their goods soonest and cheapest, whether that route be via Green Bay, Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Milwaukee, Racine or Kenosha. We do not think that our city, as a point of transhipment, or our railroads as means of conveyance, will be likely to suffer much from competition with Chicago.

As to merchandize purchased, there is, and is to be, a brisk rivalry always, doubtless, between the two cities. Just so far as our merchants furnish full and ample stocks, and facilities for business, and exert themselves as do Chicago merchants, with wise forecast and liberality, to invite customers, so far will the former do a business which will satisfy their most sanguine hopes.

So the matter stands with us both. There is room enough for both to live, to thrive, to grow in numbers and position equal to their best desires. We can do all this with good feeling, if we will, and the will exists here. Certainly, we fully reciprocate the good wishes of our Chicago cotemporary, as sincerely as they are entertained and expressed. We are sure that, under such circumstances, the Tribune will rejoice to hear that, never since the first settlement of our city, have the prospects of its rapid and substantial growth been so flattering as now. The increase of population, business houses, and the number and quality of new buildings, are beyond all precedent in previous years.

NEW LAWS.—The Legislature passed laws authorizing our Common Council to raise money for building school-houses in the new 3d and 7th wards, and repealing the limitation as to the per centage of school tax to be raised.

Also, another law increasing the amount for which the credit of the city may be loaned, to $2,000,000, for railroads.

EMIGRANTS.—The Fond du Lac Union of the 8th inst., says: Some fifty or sixty emigrants chiefly German, arrived here on the cars, Saturday evening, en route for Green Bay.

From Our Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April, 7 '56.

MESSRS EDITORS:—The Kansas Committee have started on their journey, in spite of all obstacles, or rather attempted obstacles, which it was hoped in some quarters, might still prevent their departure. Meanwhile the appearance of Gen. POWERS, Gen. or rather Senator (that is to be) LANE and Governor ROBINSON, has raised anew active interest in the affairs of the "battle ground of freedom," and the assurance given by those gentlemen that every day is adding more and more to the certainty of a free state, where "the Border Ruffians" hoped and strove and (did'nt) fight for the cause of Slavery, are joyfully received.

Your readers will not have failed to remark, that in the vote authorizing this commission of enquiry, whose sole business is to get at the facts and elicit the truth, not a single voice south of Mason & Dixon's line was recorded in its favor. Every obstacle was thrown in the way of investigation, and it was openly avowed that no matter what the atrocities perpetrated by the invaders of Kansas, no exposures and no redress would be tolerated. A second time, as in the election of the Speaker, the Northern spirit was aroused; and a second time have the ultraists of the South been taught that their reign is at an end.

In Congressional matters, The House has been occupied chiefly with the different appropriation bills, which have been thus early matured and reported, thro' the diligence of L. D. Campbell the efficient chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means. There is a vast deal of business pressing upon the House which nevertheless thought it desirable to dispose first of these appropriation bills and has given them the precedence over all other matters.

Gen. Lane's Oregon and Washington appropriation of $300,000—in view of the late accounts especially from Washington territory, where the Indians, driven to desperation, have united in open and desperate warfare upon the whites—was rushed through the House, against the judgment of many of the Members, who did not believe that the Indians were the aggressors, but still felt themselves constrained to vote what appeared to be necessary for the defence of their fellow citizens. It is the opinion of men, best qualified to judge here, and they are sustained by facts in their opinion, that the war has been brought on deliberately by the whites, for the sake of plunder, and that the Treasury will be bled to the tune of millions before the whole bill is footed. And such indeed has been the history of all our Indian wars, this process of extermination (and a costly one it has proved) having been adopted in all cases, with results that can hardly be deemed satisfactory or creditable by the extremest advocates of the system. Brutal violence and unprovoked outrages upon the Indians, with the most barefaced and unlimited swindling of the Government, characterize the history of these Indian Wars—of which this last I fear is certain to be the most formidable.

The Senate has been taken up very much with discussing the actions of the late Naval Board, which tho' vehemently attacked, has found warm defenders. Messrs. Slidell and Clayton have upheld the action of the Board, individual members of which have, most unjustly, been selected for attack and abuse because of their supposed influence with their fellow members. A discussion on this ground between Senators Clayton and Bell for a time threatened serious consequences, but the good sense and good feeling of both, returned after a day's adjournment, and peace was restored.

The Presidential speculations are as numerous and varied as can well be imagined. General opinion seems to be settling more and more towards the selection of a new man at Cincinnati (as I stated in a former letter) and the secession of Col. Forney from the Union and from the Pierce ranks to the Buchanan interest has led already to preliminary symptoms which must ere long, break out into an open rupture. There is every indication of a severe fight, in which the White House will have a potential voice so far at least as throwing its weight on the side of or against any named candidate: and depend upon it the prominent candidates of the day will get little support, when the time for decision arrives, from the advocates of Gen. Pierce's re-nomination.

On the Republican side, Gov. Seward first and foremost,— and after him, Messrs. Banks, Reeder, Fremont and others are freely spoken of, and their chances for success canvassed and examined, with the general conclusion that the man best calculated to win, will be the man selected. They have, one and all, strong backers and—if a prediction be not utterly ridiculous upon such very vague data—the name of the Republican candidate will be one of the four I have mentioned.

Mr. C. C. Washburne, whose sickness I alluded to in my last, has recovered and resumed his seat in the House. REX.

THE KNOW NOTHING STATE COUNCIL.—The K. N. State Council assembled in this city, Tuesday evening, in secret session, "about fifty members being present" (according to the American) representing 98, out of some 205 Councils. They did little, the first evening, besides electing the officers for the ensuing year JESSE LOCKWOOD, President; D. E. WOOD, V. P.; ROB. CHANDLER, Secretary and S. E. DAGGETT, Treasurer. The Council then adjourned to 9 A. M. yesterday, when they resumed their secret labors—with what result probably to-day's American will inform us. The "Annual Message" of President LOCKWOOD appears in yesterday's American. It boasts of the increase in the number of the order; announces that "Protestant Foreigners" are now admissible as members; deplores the fact that the party has no longer any "Nationality;" refers briefly to the Philadelphia split and recommends the appointment of delegates to the New York Convention on the 12th of June next.

THE KANSAS COMMISSION.—Messrs. W. A. HOWARD and JOHN SHERMAN, of the Kansas Investigating Committee, passed through Chicago, Tuesday, on their way to the scene of their labors. Mr. OLIVER, the third member of the Commission, will join them farther West. They were accompanied by Mr. John Upton, Sergeant-at-Arms; Mr. Townsend, Assistant; Mr. Fogg, Clerk; Mr. Bowen, Clerk; W. B. Lord, Reporter.

It is supposed the committee will be absent about three months.

A RAILROAD COMPLAINT BOOK.—The New Jersey Railroad and Transportation Company has opened a complaint book at its office in Jersey City, which book is accessible at all times for the entry of all causes of complaint or dissatisfaction against officers or employes of the road.—The company pledges itself to thoroughly investigate charges and redress grievances.

PARDONED.—GOV. CLARK, of New York, has pardoned Dr. Graham, who killed Col. Loring at the St. Nicholas Hotel, and who has acted as apothecary since his confinement in Sing Sing. Extreme ill-health and the intercession of many leading citizens, plead for the prisoner successfully.

WESTERN JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.—We have no returns, yet, of the vote for Judge in the North-Western Circuit of the State, except from Sparta, Monroe County, which gave Judge KNOWLTON 149 votes, and GEO. GALE 24.

CONSENT ASKED.—The Brussels Independent asserts that the Prince Frederick William, of Prussia, has asked of the King his uncle, his Consent to the proposed alliance with the Princess Royal of England, and that consent was granted in presence of the Court. The Prince is 25 years of age, and the Princess nearly 16.

BISHOP O'REILLY.—The Boston Post states that authentic information has been received that Rt. Rev. Bernard O'Reilly was in Ireland on the 6th of February last, and consequently could not have been a passenger by the Pacific, which sailed on the 23d of January.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Notes by the Way—Chicago—Dubuque. The Upper Mississippi.

DUBUQUE, April 4, 1856.

We arrived at Dubuque day before yesterday, via the Chicago and Galena railroad. I had not visited Chicago before since the day of the celebration of the opening of the Southern Michigan road to that city. I was impressed, of course, with its amazing growth and improvement—the character of its public works, the number, size and beauty of its lately built stores and private residences—all of which contrast most favorably with Chicago, as it was when I first saw it five years ago, and when, instead of being "a city set upon a hill," it was an accumulation of shanties, deposited in a mud hole. It is undoubtedly true, as the people there admit, that they have been lying about the growth of Chicago for the last ten years, but the city has beat them at that! Among the contemplated improvements are the raising of the street grades, and the filling of the space between the Lake Shore and the track at the extremity of which the Illinois Central has its magnificent depot, for enclosure as a public park.—If the last-named project should be realized, it would make one of the most extensive and beautiful parks in the world. As to the expense, I presume that a Milwaukee Alderman could be prevailed on to take the contract at Milwaukee prices, and guarantee its completion for a less sum than the National debt of England.

Dubuque is rather prettily situated, and owing to the lead mines which abound in the hills, which wall in its rear, and to the commerce of the Mississippi, which passes directly in front, has grown to be a city of considerable importance, containing a population of some twelve thousand. The streets are too narrow, and the principal building material, aside from lumber, is a poor quality of red brick, which looks shabbily enough compared with the Milwaukee cream. Not much progress has been made in architectural adornment.

Real estate ranges in price, for outside property, (the city limits extend two miles back of the city,) from $700 to $3,000 per acre, and for lots on the principal business street about the same per lineal foot as on East Water street. Among the residents here, I found Messrs. OSMOND BARLEY and B. B. RICHARDS, late of Milwaukee. Both are doing well—the former as chattler, and the latter as real estate dealer and banker. I heard of a purchase of real estate here a day or two since by the firm of which Mr. RICHARDS is a member, for $80,000—$25,000 cash. The U. S. Land Office for this District is located here. The principal portion of the public lands is sold—in short, little of value is left anywhere within a hundred miles of the Mississippi on the Iowa side. The sales have exceeded $200,000 in a single month, and so great was the rush several months since, (when the Land Office was forced to close to get the books posted,) that it was found there were speculators in town with warrants enough to absord all the land in the District. Under these circumstances the Register, alleging as an excuse his desire to protect the actual settler, determined to allow no more than a section of land to each applicant. But, however laudable his desire, he exceeded the law and instructions, and upon a representation of his course to the Department, by some of the speculating fraternity, the official lost his head.

The window of the room in which I write, looks out upon the Mississippi on the South. It is a calm sunset scene—a light haze gives the distant hills the hue of summer, the sky is deeply blue, flecked here and there with light purple clouds, fringed with gold, and mirrors itself in this noblest of all rivers which rises in the far North, receives the tribute of other rivers which spring from hidden sources in the distant West, and rolls on for five thousand miles, in ever increasing majesty, to the cotton fields and orange groves of the South. Like Niagara, the Mississippi is an awe-inspiring emblem of Almighty power.

We leave for the North as soon as there is a boat. The river here is free from ice. I received a despatch from Galena to-day stating that the Alhambra leaves there to-morrow, and the War Eagle on Monday for Reed's Landing, some thirty miles, I believe, North of Winona.

VIATOR.

THE LOSS OF THE PACIFIC.—In the Spiritual Telegraph of last week, appears a long communication from Mr. S. W. BRITTON, professing to give the particulars of the loss of the Collins steamship Pacific, as derived from a spiritual medium. The following is the account:

"When six days out, the Pacific struck an iceberg at 11 o'clock on the evening of January 29, and very soon went down, stern foremost. As the vessel sank, three persons escaped from the wreck and found a temporary resting place on the ice, but they were subsequently frozen to death. It was further alleged that there were forty-eight passengers on board—forty males and eight females; that at the time of the catastrophe, the ship was in latitude 46° north; that the Captain was at fault in taking the course he did, his object being to make a quicker trip than the Persia, which was then on her first voyage. In the course of the evening—the medium being entranced—the heart-rending scene was graphically represented; the general consternation, the wild tumult, and the frantic prayers to God for deliverance, excited intense and solemn emotions in all who were present.

The Telegraph adds that the loss of the Pacific, with all on board, was predicted by the "spirits" on the 26d of December (the day she sailed), though no public mention was made of this till the steamer was over-due. The Telegraph also tells the following story: Mrs. Porter being the "medium" who predicted and described the loss of the Pacific:

When the Pacific had been out some thirty days, Mrs. Porter was one day visited by two strange ladies, who on entering her rooms gave no information respecting the specific object for which they sought an interview. They had not been long seated at the table before the special purpose of their visit was made known by an invisible intelligence. A spirit said, in substance, through Mrs. Porter, "I was an engineer on "board the Pacific; am your brother; I was the "main stay of the family; don't tell mother of "this yet; the Pacific is lost, but I am here. "Samuel Havens." On the receipt of this communication one of the ladies gave way to sudden and painful emotions. She acknowledged that she had a brother by that name on board the Pacific, and that he was employed in the capacity of engineer.

"It is instructive to remark" that these marvellous tales were not published till after all hope of the Pacific's safety was pretty much abandoned; and as it is too probable alas! that no living witnesses remain to dispute the account of her loss, the "spirits" run no great risk of being contradicted.

When the Atlantic was missing for some fifty days, several years since, the "spirits," with equal confidence, asserted that she was lost and minutely described the circumstances of the wreck. Happily, the Atlantic was "spirit-proof," and came out all right; and the explanation was that the "spirits" which had reported her loss were "lying" ones. Whether those who are now describing, with such seeming particularity, the loss of the Pacific, belong to the same tribe with the false prophets of the Atlantic's wreck, is, as yet, beyond mortal ken.

OWNING UP.—The Madison Argus, announcing the vote in Lafayette County Seat, says:

At Shullsburg—J. H. KNOWLTON's town, where a population of about 2000 resides, some eight hundred votes were cast—a touch of Waupaca.

This is the first time the Argus has admitted, even by implication, the Waupaca fraud; and probably it was betrayed into it now by the desire to give MR. KNOWLTON a dig.

TAKING LEG-BAIL.—WILLIAM CONROY, who was arrested for voting in three different Wards of Janesville, at the recent Charter Election there, and released, pending his examination, on $200 bail, has taken "French leave"—the testimony being conclusive against him. It is to be hoped that some of the scoundrels who thus violate our Election laws will be convicted and punished to the extreme limit of the Statutes.

The Farmers at Work.

We learn from different parts of the State, that the Farmers are beginning to put in their spring crops. The ground, though somewhat dry, is in good condition, and during the present week a great deal of ploughing will be done and a large breadth of land sown to club wheat. Notwithstanding the severe winter and cold, dry spring, the winter wheat, in general, is looking well, and needs but a few warm April showers to bring it out, all right. The high price which Barley has borne in this market for a year past, will doubtless stimulate an increased production of that Grain, though it takes the very best land to raise a choice quality. A much larger number of acres than usual will be planted this year in Corn, which is always a very sure crop in this State and latterly very remunerative also. Indeed, our Farmers can hardly go amiss, or overdo the matter, whatever or howmuchsoever they plant; since the demand for home consumption and shipment East will pretty certainly keep prices for all kinds of Agricultural produce, above the paying point.

PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCES.—The Madison Journal thus warmly endorses the preference expressed by the Beloit Journal for the nomination of WILLIAM H. SEWARD, as the Republican candidate for the Presidency:

No anti-slavery man, spoken of in connection with the nomination for the Presidency will carry Wisconsin by as large a majority as William H. Seward. At least this is our opinion. Mr. Seward is free even from the suspicion of Know Nothingism. When that political madness was at its height and threatened to carry all before it, he maintained his consistency. While thousands were deserting the platform of toleration and true Republicanism, and rallying around the banner of bigotry and proscription, he was the "faithful Abdiel" who stood firmly by the Constitution and those principles, broad and cosmopolitan, that look to the man and not the accidents of his birth and religion, which he early espoused, and for which he had, through life, contended. This too was when his Senatorial term was just expiring, and when a mere demagogue and unprincipled politician would have been trimming his sails to catch the breeze that had suddenly sprung up so fresh and promising from a new quarter of the political horizon.

Mr. Seward's course at that time was the best refutation of the charge of demagogusim that has been preferred against him that could be offered. We honor him for that uprightness. We believe him, if not the ablest, among the ablest of American statesmen, a man of large, practical sense, of comprehensive, statesman-like views, ambitious it may be, but ambitious in the right direction, ambitious of rendering his eminent abilities of service to the cause of freedom, of humanity, and truth. As a President, we shall have to go back, at least to the younger Adams, and perhaps to Thomas Jefferson, to find his peer in the list of American Chief Magistrates.

ICE IN LAKE HURON.—The Port Sarnia Observer of the 3d instant says:

St Clair river has been free of ice for several days. Lake Huron however, as far as the eye can reach from the highest point of view, is yet one vast field of ice, and when it breaks up, should northerly winds prevail, will keep the river covered with floating masses for a long time. Under all circumstances it is not expected navigation will be regularly opened, till the end of the present month or the beginning of next—quite an unusual thing in this region.

Condition of the Treasury—Quarterly Statement of the Secretary of State.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, }
MADISON, 31st of March, 1856. }

To the Governor:

In compliance with the fourth subdivision of section 19, chapter 9, of the Revised Statutes, I have this day made an actual count of the monies in the vaults of the State Treasurer, and find the sum of $84,728 74 as follows, viz:

Gold Coin	$39,152,05
Silver Coin	64,50
Bank Notes of Wisconsin	45,200,86
Checks and certificates of deposits	41,30
	$84,728,71

The books of the State Treasurer have not as yet been sufficiently examined, and compared with those in this office, to enable me to specify with exactness the amount of money that should be in the Treasury, but the sum above mentioned, I am satisfied, from the examination made, of sufficient to balance the accounts of the present State Treasurer.

As soon as the books and accounts of the State Treasurer are properly adjusted, a statement of the transactions during the quarter ending this day in the particular and various funds will be transmitted to you.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
D. W. JONES, Sec'y of State.

OUR WESTERN RAIL ROADS.—The New York Tribune of Saturday, in its money article, has the following sensible remarks touching the present and prospective value of Western Rail Road stocks:

Among the features of the market is a growing confidence in Western Railroad stocks, and a slow but steady abandonment by operators of the old speculative stocks dealt in at the Board for those more recently introduced, and which offer a large margin for speculative action. In the absence of a general dissemination of information, roads in the West, well managed and profitably managed, running through a new country which is being developed every day, and which is every day becoming better able to sustain a railroad, are selling in this market 15 to 30 per cent below home stocks yielding an equal revenue, and the traffic of which has nearly reached the maximum. The system of roads, for example, stretching across the same hundred and thirty miles of country between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi River, with a territory beyond it almost entirely undeveloped equal to twenty States, West and North-west, is yet in its infancy. A considerable portion of the land is now yet under cultivation, the villages and towns are thinly settled and not numerous, yet those roads which have been extended either partly or entirely across the district of country alluded to, are exceeding the anticipations of the managers in their amount of traffic, and judging from the increase which has taken place, it is not easy to fix a limit to what may be expected when the land is filled, years hence, with an industrious and prospering people. Comparing the present earnings of some of those roads with those at the East, the stocks of the Western roads would appear to be selling far below their value; and in view of the future prospects of their increase of traffic as the country through which they run is filled up and made to produce crops, there can be no doubt that either these stocks are too low, or Eastern roads too high.

The National Convention.

We publish the call of the National Committee this morning for a National Convention at Philadelphia on the 17th of June next. The Republicans of this State should be organizing for the approaching campaign. District conventions should be called for the election of delegates to the State Convention at an early day. There has been some little dissatisfaction expressed with the call for the State Convention, some preferring a mass to a delegate convention. The State Central Committee, however, were of opinion that a delegate convention would be the fairer for the several portions of the State, and generally the more satisfactory. Such is without doubt the case. A mass convention would represent little beyond Dane County and the country along the line of the railroad. Madison could control the election of the National Delegates in a mass convention; and we have no doubt but all reflecting men, having at heart the success of the principles for which the Republican party was organized, and desirous of giving all sections of the State an influence in the convention, proportionate to their population, will concur in the action of the Committee. We want fairness, harmony, and cordial good feeling in the State Convention; and National delegates selected who will justly represent the popular sentiment of the anti-slavery men of the State. A large majority of the people of Wisconsin are anti-slavery in sentiment, if that issue could be presented them unincumbered by any of the miserable side issues which demagogues and fanatics attempt to harness to this paramount question. We wish to see delegates chosen who sincerely represent that issue, and who will form upon all attempts to lug into Republican ranks extraneous and distracting questions.—Madison Journal.

TRAVEL IS INCREASING.—Two daily stages are now running from this village to Whitewater, carrying full loads each way, and not unfrequently, extra teams are called into requisition. Many eastern men who are now in the State purchasing lands, are being made aware of the superior richness of the Jefferson County soils; they are inclined to visit us, and not a few become actual residents. There is no locality in the State which presents greater inducements to enterprising men, than does that of this immediate vicinity, and to this fact would we call the attention, not of speculators, but of working men.—Jeffersonian.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—Gov. Bashford has appointed Hon. Amasa Cobb, of this village Adjutant General of the State, vice McManman removed. Gov. Bashford could hardly have made a better appointment to this office from among his party friends.—Mineral Point Democrat.

Rough Sketches.

[From my Hammock and Knapsack, of Camp Life in Nicaragua.]

During the past week most startling and unexpected changes have taken place; in the first place arrive an Ambassador from the neighboring State of San Salvador, with a militia escort in a uniform two sizes too large for them, and which may have been, and I think probably have been used for the same purpose, for the past generation, by all the surrounding States. Luckily the arrival of this most puissant personage (no allusion intended here to either of the escorts but to the General or Colonel or whatever his rank may be,) was but the precursor of the arrival of the La Virgen, on Sunday morning last, with something like 300 troops for the Government, and 50 or 60 emigrants. Great were the rejoicings accordingly, and with reason.

Among them was a fine company from New-York, a German and French company; the latter was composed of as fine men as I ever had the pleasure to behold—many of then old Chassurs de Vincennes, bronzed with the sun of Africa, and familiar with the use of that most deadly of weapons, the Minnie rifle; these, bringing with them their musicians, formed in their respective positions, and headed by their officers elect, and defiling in one continuous and lengthened column through the orange groves fringing the lake, up the gentle defile which will soon be the city of New Granada, toward the city, there with drums beating appearing in parade order, before the man whom all look to and revere—who holds in his hands the destines of Central America. This indeed was a sight worthy the living for.

After being marched around the plaza, they were conducted by their respective officers to the quarters allotted for them—the greater number being quartered in the cloisters of San Francisco, themselves perfectly at home, and the air was soon resounding with songs of home and fatherland.

THE NEWS FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.—The Star of the West brings quantities of verbose letters, documents, speeches, articles, proclamations, pronunciamentoes, &c., in reference to the hostilities between Walker's Nicaraguan Government and Costa Rica—the way they do things in Spanish American countries, being to expend a magnificent amount of talk to a very small proportion of cider. The only thing that seems to have been done was that 1,100 Nicaraguans (dignified as "the Army of Invasion") marched into one end of the little village of Zapoya, just in time to see the flying coat tails of 300 Costa Ricans (entitled "the Army of Occupation") who were running out at the other. The victors pocketed all the loose cash they found in the town, which probably was not much, though great complaints are made by the heroes against their Colonel for keeping the biggest share of it to himself. How this dispute was settled, or what became of the flying Costa Ricans, the anxious public will have to wait until the arrival of another steamer, to ascertain.—Albany Ev. Journal.

A LANDMARK GONE.—That good, old-fashioned, comfortable, respectable travelers' stand-by, the Irving House, is rapidly disappearing from the face of the earth. An impertinent army of workmen has invaded its bedrooms; men in their shirt-sleeves, with their breeches in their boots, stalk unrebuked through its parlors; its most private apartments are profaned by the presence of smutty-faced masons; and all these exult in the downfall of an old friend, and rattle his remains in a promiscuous heap upon the sidewalk. But a few days will pass before the Irving House will be spoken of in the past tense; it is even now disemboweled and decapitated, and of course cannot long survive. Where will the hand of the Goth be stayed? "Stuart's" already shakes in his marble head, and the Astor House trembles in its granite boots.—N. Y. Tribune.

NEWFOUNDLAND DOG PUTTING OUT A FIRE—WONDERFUL SAGACITY.—One of the most astonishing instances of the sagacity of the dog transpired this morning, which ever came to our knowledge. The Messrs. Straude, tobacconists, No. 35 Congress street, closed their store last evening, leaving their favorite Newfoundland inside. This morning, on opening the store, the floor in the back room was found to be on fire, and the dog was laboring with his fore feet and mouth, trying to subdue it. A pail of water which stood in the room had been poured down the hole. The faithful animal had so successfully combatted the fire as to prevent its spreading beyond a spot two or three feet square. How long the noble fellow had stood sentinel and fought down the advancing flames, can only be conjectured—it most have been several hours. His feet, legs and mouth were badly burned, and it is feared that he is seriously injured internally by inhaling the hot air. He refuses food, and is apparently in much pain. We trust the sagacious and faithful creature is not dangerously injured. This is the same dog which discovered the man Lally on the ice a few weeks since. He is worth his weight in gold, and may safely be pronounced the noblest of his race.—Troy Times April 3d.

☞ Those who are fond of sweet potatoes will regret to learn that the crop is likely to be almost a failure in the Southern States the coming season. The seed has been destroyed by the intensely cold weather. The State of Georgia alone produced, in 1855, nearly 7,000,000 bushels, and in that State there will not be the tithe of a crop this year.

DIED.

His funeral will take place from the residence of his father, on Spring Street, at 10 o'clock to-day.

SHIPMENTS OF SPECIE.—The New York Evening Post says the shipments of specie this year are little more than one-half of those of last year, namely:

	1856.	1855.
Exports from Boston since 1st Jan.	$550,000	$2,841,809
do do New York do do	2,902,578	4,518,803
Total	$3,452,578	$7,420,612

or a decrease of three millions of dollars.

The receipts of specie from California in the same period amount to nearly double the amount of the exports, namely:

1856—since 1st of January	$6,848,057
1855—do do	7,484,289
We have thus received	$649,289

less than last, but exported four millions four hundred dollars less—a gain this year of $8,800,00. This makes up for the increase of duties.

MILWAUKEE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—In our advertising columns will be found the notice of a new and first class School about to be opened in our city, under the charge of Professor STARKS, a graduate of Union College, N. Y., and late Principal of Bakersfield Academy, Vermont. The need of increased Educational facilities is much felt in our rapidly growing city. All the schools, public and private, now in operation here, are crowded with pupils. We think, therefore, that Professor STARKS will find plenty of scholars for his proposed institution, the more especially as he brings most satisfactory testimonials as to his entire fitness for the task which he is about to undertake. Competent instructors will assist him in the work. See advertisement.

SWINDLING BY CAB DRIVERS.—Day before yesterday a party of men, six in number, arrived by the Lake Shore Rail Road, and bargained with a Hack driver to take themselves and their baggage to the La Crosse R. R. Depot, for $1,50. On arriving there they found that their satchels had been put on a dray, and the draysman demanded $1,00, refusing to give up the baggage without the $1.00. The men refused to pay it and applied to the Chief of Police, who directed an officer to the Depot with instructions to see the baggage given up to the owners, and if that was refused to arrest the Hackman. The baggage was given up. These cases of extortion are frequent, and the Common Council should so amend the "Hack Ordinance," that they could be punished.

NEW FOUNDRY OF MESSRS. WALTON & GOODNOW.—At the corner of Clinton and Florida Streets, in the 6th Ward, Messrs. Walton & Goodnow, the former late of the Menomonee Locomotive Co., the latter formerly in the same concern, but more lately of Worcester, Mass., have recently put in operation a Foundry and Engine Shop which is a material addition to that growing interest in our city. The building is of brick, the main part of two stories giving them an office, engine room, working floor, and pattern shop, and extensions furnishing a blacksmith shop and moulding floor. Everything is in fine order, and when the machinery is all in, the establishment will give employment to about 50 hands. Their engine, from Fitchburg, Mass., is one of the most perfect pieces of machinery that we have seen in town. They are now making a steam engine for Messrs. MARTIN & ROOKE, and are getting out the castings and wrought work for a large swing bridge, similar to those in use here, for Cleveland, Ohio.

THEATRE AT YOUNG'S HALL NEXT TUESDAY.—The Theatre at Young's Hall, under the management of Mr. O. R. THORNE, late manager of the American Theatre of San Francisco, will be opened on Tuesday night next with the following pieces: "The Old Guard," "The Little Treasure" and "The Loan of a Lover."

Mr. THORNE has been well known for many years a "star actor" in the New York and Boston Theatres. Mrs and Miss THORNE are but recently from Burton's Theatre, New York, where they drew large houses. Mr. LEFFINGWELL is also from Burton's Theatre; Mr. MESTAYER from Laura Keene's Varieties; Mr. Sr. MAR, from the St. Charles Theatre, New Orleans; Mr. HOWARD is also from New York, and Mr. CARTER, from the Bowery Theatre.

The Company have rented Young's Hall to test the question whether the erection of a Theatre in this city will remunerate the outlay. All of them are well known actors of great talent and merit, and are of undoubted respectability. The selection of the plays will be made with reference to the tastes of the people of Milwaukee; the aim of the Manager being to instruct and amuse his patrons.

The scenery is new, painted expressly for this Company, and no expense will be spared by the Manager to make his Theatre worthy of the public patronage.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire, shortly before 10 o'clock last evening, proceeded from the store of NESSER & SCHUTTER, corner of Third and Chestnut Streets, Second Ward. The store had been closed for the night, when some passers by discovered a fire blazing up in the rear part of the first floor. The alarm was immediately given, the front door forced open and the flames extinguished before any material damage had been done. The Fire Department were on the ground with their usual promptness, but fortunately their services were not needed. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

POCKET BOOK LOST.—A Port Monnaie containing about $2,00 in money, and several valuable papers (to the owner and none other,) was lost yesterday afternoon, in Milwaukee, between Wisconsin and Mason Streets. The finder by leaving it at the Counting Room of the Sentinel Office, will be rewarded. It belongs to a poor woman.

STEAMBOATS FOR THE SEASON.—We understand that it is in contemplation to run the steamers Arctic and Traveller between this city and Chicago during the season, and the Cleveland and Huron between this port and Green Bay. The arrangements, however, will be duly announced as soon as decided upon.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—See the advertisement of HOWARD, ROWCK & Co.'s Commercial College. Our knowledge of the Principals and their capability for the conduct of such an institution is such as to lead us to recommend them to the attention of all who desire instructions in the branches taught by them.

LECTURES ON WOMAN.—Miss Delphine P. Baker, of New Hampshire, will lecture in this city, upon the Influence and Education of Woman, in the course of the coming week.

APPLES.—Caleb Wall will sell 50 barrels of choice Apples, at auction, this morning.

☞ THE House and Lease which WALL offers for sale this morning is a bargain for anybody with a little spare cash.

FIRST CARGOES OF LUMBER.—Messrs. LEE and CAIN received yesterday, by the brig Preble and schooner Undine, owned by them, the first two cargoes of lumber imported this year, amounting to 280,000 ft. lumber, 200,000 shingles, and a few thousand lath. They are still at their old stand, ready for business this year as last.

"HERE'S YOUR FINE ORANGES!"—We are indebted to CALEB WALL for a basket of fine Oranges, raised in his Greenhouse, from a tree which has been nearly ripe Oranges on it for some months past. Mr. WALL is becoming quite a Tropicalist in his climate, having also on hand some ripe Wall-fruit.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY.—Messrs. LOOMIS & HOES invite attention, in our advertising columns, to their elegant store and stock, which fully justifies such solicitude.

WAREHOUSE PROPERTY.—See advertisement of J. S. FILMORE, offering for sale, at a bargain, some very desirable lots for Warehouse and general business purposes.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

City Auction Room.

ON TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1856, I will sell at Public Auction, Four Hundred lots, in 6th Ward, just laid out, called Plankinton's Addition. The grounds upon which the said lots are located is in the very heart of the said Ward, and is densely populated. There is no property in Milwaukee more desirable, and no part of the city where investments can be made more profitably than in the aforesaid addition. The same fact of said upon which the lots of Plankinton's Addition is laid out, would and should have been accepted long ago; but it was so situated that it could not be obtained. Mr. Plankinton has purchased the said tract, and laid it off as here. Any one who is desirous of making investments, it will be to their interest to attend this sale. A glance at our city map is sufficient to convince any reasonable man that there is no property more desirable. Milwaukee now contains over Forty Thousand inhabitants, with an increase of a hundred per day, and she will continue to increase more rapidly. She has now five Rail Roads, and in the course of two years will have five more. It is unnecessary to go into details, any one who visits our city, and wishes capital to invest in Real Estate, can see and judge for themselves. The lots will be sold without any reserve, upon the following terms:—¼ cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, with seven per cent interest. The title is perfect. [apr10] CALEB WALL.

PARLOR OR SALOON PISTOLS!

JUST RECEIVED a small assortment of the above named Pistols together with the cap, and ball for the same. These pistols are not only serviceable as a weapon of defence, but are admirably adapted for target exercise.

The cap, ball and powder are all together, and the Pistol can be charged in the same space of time required to place a cap on an ordinary Pistol. There is but little smoke or noise attending the discharge, at the same time the ball is thrown with sufficient force to do great execution. As this style of Pistol is only made with two sizes of bore, no 4 Pistols will be proper sized in proportion to the caps to fit each.

We have also on hand a large stock of Colts, Allen's, Warner's, Robbins & Lawrence's, Whitney's and other styles of revolvers and pistols of cheaper grades, all of which will be sold low. Call and examine for yourselves.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

The Senate this A. M., passed several bills from the Court of Claims, making appropriations for the payment of certain claims therein named.

House is still discussing the deficiency appropriation bill.

Harris of Alabama, made a rabid speech, contending that Massachusetts by her conduct relative to fugitive slave law, had placed herself outside the pale of the constitution, and ought not to be represented in Congress: the South had been victimized, every time a compromise had been made, and he hoped that no further compromises would be made with the North.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

SENATE—Continued.—The question of printing Memorial of Kansas Legislature was further discussed. Mr. BUTLER (of S. C.) opposed the printing, because Memorial was arrogant in language. He had not objected to Kansas coming in as a free, or slave State, but he wanted her to enter honestly through the gate, not to climb over, or creep under the wall.

HOUSE—Continued.—Mr. Shorter said that every Southern State, if Government failed to protect them in their Constitutional rights, would take remedy into their own hands. If the Democratic party, the true exponent of State right principles, triumphed in the Presidential election, the Union was safe; but if Black Republicanism prevails, the history of our Confederacy has been written. (Humbug!)

Senate amendments to deficiency bill further discussed and adjourned.

NINE O'CLOCK REPORT.

WASHINGTON, April 9th.

SENATE.—Mr. Mason thought the memorial ought not to have been received, and moved that it be laid on the table

Mr. Seward desired to be heard on the question, subject postponed and special order resumed, Mr. Seward having right of the floor, he then addressed the Senate. The following is a synopsis of his speech:

He went into an extended review of the whole Kansas difficulties he first considered the peculiar relations of Kansas, to the union and the pledges given by Congress, when the territory was organized, that the people there shall be left free to establish or exclude themselves under the protection of the United States. He recapitulated the acts of the Border Ruffians and their usurping legislature, and proceeded, these high handed actions were consummated for the express purpose of establishing African slavery as a permanent

THE LIBRARY OF STANDARD LETTERS.

MASON BROTHERS, NEW YORK,

WILL PUBLISH, SATURDAY, APRIL 5TH,

The Letters of Mary Wortley Montague.

EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE,

Author of "Woman's Record," "Northwood," "Vigil of Love," &c., being Vol. II. of the "Library of Standard Letters."

1 vol., 12mo., 408 pages. Price $1 25.

"The work can scarcely fail of interesting deeply the American reader. Lady Mary lived and wrote in the first half of the eighteenth century, when our land was a component portion of the British empire, and consequently her genius and her fame are somewhat familiar. Her Letters will be found valuable as well as amusing, aiding the students of history to catch the manners and opinions of English society in high life—then the dominant power of the realm, at the time Benjamin Franklin and his co-patriots in this western world were working out the problem of American independence and popular sovereignty."

NOW PUBLISHED,

THE LETTERS OF MADAME DE SEVIGNE, TO HER DAUGHTER AND FRIENDS. Edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale. 1 vol. 12mo. Price $1.25. Being Vol. I of the "Library of Standard Letters."

PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.

Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the lightest and most desirable tints to the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paint is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Stores, &c., whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints; it possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c., Sign and Fancy Painting. F. M. LANE, 92 Spring street,
